

CYNTHIA MAY DIGGS

LAMAR - Graveside services will be at 11 a.m. today (Saturday), Nov. 18, at Arrow Rock for Cynthia May Diggs, 94, Lamar, who died Wednesday at Meadowbrook Manor in Lamar.

Daniel Funeral Home, Lamar, is in charge of arrangements.

The family is at the Mildred Diggs' home, 202 Cherry, Lamar.

Survivors include two brothers, George Diggs and William Henry Diggs, both of Lamar; a sister, Ellabeth Stilings, Atchison, Kan.; and many nieces and nephews.

Miss Diggs was born May 20, 1901, at Arrow Rock to Will T. and Bessye (McCart) Diggs. She moved to Lamar in 1909 and finished elementary school at Oakton. She graduated from Carthage High School in 1922. She received a B.S. in education at Kansas State Teacher's College at Pittsburg, Kan. She was employed as a teacher and principal in the Galena, Kan. schools for 20 years.

During the war years she