

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

OBITUARY

Madge Mary Dingman, the daughter of Charles and Mary Collis, was born August 18, 1897 in Barton County, near Nashville, Mo., and departed this life August 18, 1973, at Medical Lodge, Pittsburg, Kansas on her 76th birthday.

She grew to womanhood in the community of her birth and on February 21, 1917 was united in marriage to Elmer Dingman at Nashville, Missouri. To this union was born one daughter and one son. Mr. Dingman preceded his wife in death on January 14, 1968.

Mrs. Dingman spent her entire life in the Nashville community.

Early in life she was converted and was united with the Nashville Methodist Church, where she remained a member all the rest of her life.

She is survived by one son, Gordon Dingman, Mindenmines, Mo., and one daughter, Mrs. Warren McWilliams of Asbury, Mo. She is also survived by six grandchildren and one great-grandchild, and a number of other relatives and friends.
