

Thomas Mark Elliott, age 48, of Golden City, Missouri, passed away Monday, June 2, 2008, at Barton County Memorial Hospital in Lamar.

Tom was born June 7, 1959, in Carthage, to Bill and Priscilla (Webb) Elliott. Always a hard worker, Tom had various jobs from an early age, mowing lawns and working at the Golden City Schools before graduating in 1977. On June 9, 1984, at Golden City, Tom married Debra Ann Alexander and they were about to celebrate 24 years together. Tom had worked at Finley Engineering in Lamar for several years and was a cable technician for Cox Enterprises in Carthage for 17 years, retiring in 2003 due to ill health. He enjoyed collecting guns and knives and was an avid reader of western novels. He also collected Bibles and attended Golden City United Methodist Church. Above all, Tom was devoted to his family and was a loving son, brother, husband, father, and grandfather who will be greatly missed.

Survivors include the love of his life, his wife, Debra, of the home; two sons, Ronnie & wife Peggy Elliott, Bethany, Missouri, and Marcos Aaron Elliott, of the home; three daughters, Sheila & husband Ricky Tubaugh, Golden City, Shelly Ann Sims, Golden City, and Madison Elliott, of the home; his mother, Priscilla Tubaugh, Golden City; two brothers and sisters-in-law, Robert & Rita Elliott, Golden City, and Danny & Michelle Young, Deerfield; two sisters, Gloria & husband Dale Nelson, and Laura Jane Dickerson, all of Golden City; six grandchildren, Christopher, Dylan, Austin, Cassie, Megan and Katie; many nieces and nephews, a large extended family, and a host of friends.
