

Reba Beatrice Felkner, age 85, of rural Lamar, Missouri, passed away Saturday, May 21, 2005, at her home, following a long illness.

Reba was born March 15, 1920, in Lamar, Missouri, to Joseph and Martha (Divine) Smith. She was a life-long Barton County resident and a member of Grace Place Baptist Church. In addition to being a homemaker, she had worked for Barton County Memorial Hospital and later retired after working for O'Sullivan Industries for many years.

On March 31, 1937, in Lamar, she married Everett Forest Felkner, who survives, of the home. Also surviving are a daughter-in-law, Retha Felkner, Lamar; two grandsons and granddaughters-in-law, Everett "Skip" & Tina Felkner, and Joe & Penny Felkner, all of Lamar; five great-granddaughters, Melissa, Jennifer, Crystal, Amanda Jo, and Sarah; two step-great-grandsons, Jason and Gilbert Sheriff. She was preceded in death by two sons, Don Felkner in 1994 and Everett Felkner, Jr. in 2001.
