Lord,

Make me an instrument

of Your peace;

Where there is hatred, let me sow love;

Where there is injury, pardon;

Where there is doubt, faith;

Where there is despair, hope;

Where there is darkness, light;

Where there is sadness, joy.

LOIS COSTLEY FOGAR

Lois Costley Fogar, 87, of Liberal, MO, passed away at 5:20 p.m. on Thursday, November 28, 2002 at Barton County Memorial Hospital in Lamar, MO after a short illness.

Lois was born July 15, 1915 in Jasper County, MO to Vivian & Emma Verla (Cotton) Costley. She was one of six children. Her brothers Eugene Costley and his wife Mary Ruth of Lamar, MO, Glen Costley and his wife Cecelia of Wheaton, Maryland survive. Lois had three sisters that preceded her in death, Valeda Lueck, Clara Frazier and Christine Costley.

She Lived much of her childhood on the family farm in the Rose Branch community. Lois attended high school at Lamar High and graduated in the "Class of 1933". She was active in her high school alumni group.

On September 14, 1935 Lois married Martin Fogar. After a brief stay in Hood River, Oregon they purchased a farm in Verdella, MO where she resided until a recent illness.

Lois was active in her community churches Verdella and Hannon Freewill Baptist, the ladies auxiliary and the Bryant Club. She cared for her ailing parents and sister in their time of need. Lois contributed to many charitable organizations.
