The casket will be closed at all times.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Sheila Mayfield fund at any Southwest Missouri Bank location.

Survivors include her husband, Ben Mayfield; two sons, William Ryan Mayfield and Clayton Joe Mayfield, both of the home; her parents, Bob and Peggy Gordon, Claremore, Okla.; a sister, Shelly Wells, Jasper; maternal grandparents, Walter and Velta

Ball, Jasper; paternal grandmother, Martha Gordon, Lamar, and her maternal great-grandfather, Lawrence Berryhill, Jasper.

Mrs. Mayfield was born Jan. 26, 1968, at Carthage, to Bob and Peggy (Ball) Gordon. She lived in the Jasper area most of her life. She was a 1986 graduate of Jasper High School.

She had worked at the Southwest Missouri Bank of Jasper for seven years, retiring to be home with her children three months ago. She was a member of the Jasper United Methodist Church.

She married Ben Mayfield Oct. 18, 1986 at Oakton.

ROSE MARIE POTTER's niece of Jasper, Sheila Mayfield, was on an interstate highway between Tulsa and Joplin with her grandmother, sister, and two boys, ages five years and eight months, when as they came through the underpass, two boys ages 15 and 16 threw an eight pound rock on the car, killing Sheila. The grandmother grabbed the wheel, and the sister in the backseat leaned over the seat and grabbed hold of the wheel with both hands while the mother removed her granddaughter's foot off the gas, and then was able to get to the brake to stop the car. So sad. We never know from one day to the
