

LLOYD NIMS 1993

LAMAR - Graveside services were at 10 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 21, at Memory Gardens Cemetery, Lamar, for Lloyd Eldon Nims, 77, Lamar, who died at 4:20 a.m. Sunday at Mercy Hospital, Fort Scott, Kan., after a long illness.

Pallbearers were Ray Nims, Jason Nims, Larry Ball, Walter Nims, Derek Durman, and Albert Miller.

Daniel Funeral Home, Lamar, was in charge of arrangements.

Survivors include two sons, Ray Nims, Girard, Kan., and Walter Nims, Lamar; a daughter, Sheila Durman, Girard; a sister, Opal Bayley, Lamar; 12 grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Mr. Nims was born June 4, 1916, in Walker, Iowa, to Eli Fred and Sadie Irene (Smith) Nims. He had lived in Lamar for 50 years and was a self-employed house painter.

He was an Army veteran of World War II.

He married Bertha Lucille Baker on Jan. 16, 1952, in Bentonville, Ark. She died Aug. 3, 1987.