

APPRECIATION

On behalf of Betty's family,
we wish to express their gratitude for your many kindnesses evidenced in thought and deed,
and for your attendance
at the funeral service.

Daniel Funeral Home
1201 Broadway
Lamar, MO 64759
417-682-5518
danielfuneralhome.net

In Loving Memory
Betty Virginia Parrack
January 12, 1925 - December 15, 2013

Betty Virginia (Neese) Parrack, 88, Lamar, passed away December 15, 2013 at Barton County Memorial Hospital following a short illness.

Betty was born January 12, 1925, at Springfield, MO, and was the oldest daughter of Russell Floyd and Lucy Fae (Hinshaw) Neese. She graduated from Willard High School in 1943 and attended Draughn Business College. She worked at Heers in Downtown Springfield in the 1940's, at Erwin's Grocery Store, Corner Card and Gift Shop, Walters' Studio, and Sears in Lamar. She was a member of the Powder Puff Bowling League for a number of years. She loved to read, crochet afghans for family members, and was always asked to bring the pies to family gatherings.

She married Norman (Johnny) Parrack on March 24, 1949 in Springfield.

Survivors include a daughter Diane (husband-Mike) Sharits, Carthage; a son Jay Parrack, Lamar; two grandsons, Ryan Long, Kansas City, MO; and Brady (wife-Haden) Long, Springfield; two granddaughters, Devon Sharits, Toronto, Ontario, Canada; and Taylor Sharits, Springfield; and two great granddaughters, Edyn Jayne Rivas and Elliot Anderson Long, both of Springfield; three sisters, Mary Head, Springfield; Norma Jean Chapman, Oconomowoc, WI; and Barbara Blackwell, Springfield; one brother-in-law Gaylord Parrack, Mobile AL, as well as several nieces, nephews, and very close friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband Norman (October 1988); sister Catherine Henry; four brothers-in-law; four sisters-in-law; three nephews; and one niece.

IN MEMORY OF

Betty Parrack

January 12, 1925 - December 15, 2013

FUNERAL SERVICE

2:00 p.m. Friday, December 20, 2013
Daniel Funeral Home Chapel

OFFICIATING

Rev. Don Keithly

MUSIC SELECTIONS

"Amazing Grace"
Rick Johnson - Vocalist
Lorraine Vice - Pianist

PALLBEARERS

Gary Gillen - Brian Gillen
Steve Ogden - Bob Ogden
Ron Taylor - Kip Murphy

AT REST

Memory Gardens Cemetery
Lamar, Missouri