

Treasured Seasons

For everything there is an appointed season,
And a time for everything
    under heaven-
A time for sowing,
    a time for reaping;
A time for sharing,
    a time for caring.
A time for loving,
    a time for giving;
A time for remembering,
    a time for parting.
You have made everything
    beautiful in its time
For everything You do
    remains forever.
