

Bobby Lee Reno, age 64, of Lamar, passed away at 12:29 a.m. Monday, March 31, 2003 at Freeman Hospital West in Joplin following a long illness.

Bob was born December 17, 1938, in Lamar, to Leonard L. and Faye (Williams) Reno. In 1961, in Miami, Oklahoma, he married Ruby Taylor, who preceded him in death January 31, 1996. On April 19, 1997, in Stockton, Missouri, he married Wanda F. Enright, who survives of the home.

Bob was a lifetime Barton County resident and had worked for Lawn Boy in Lamar until it closed and then worked for Fairchild Camera and Instrument in Joplin. In 1966, he became a designing engineer for Day & Zimmerman-Kansas Army Ammunition Plant in Parsons, Kansas, retiring after 35 years in 2001. Bob was a member of the Lamar Masonic Lodge #292, the Mt. Hope Chapter #74, Order of the Eastern Star, and the Missouri Percheron Draft Horse Association. He was a member of First Baptist Church of Lamar.

Survivors include his wife, Wanda, of the home; three stepsons, Dale Schilder, Thornton, Colorado, Roger Schilder, Olathe, Kansas, and Duane Schilder, Coon Rapids, Minnesota; two stepdaughters, Cheryl Lilly, Euless, Texas, and Brenda Schilder, Lamar; two brothers, Gerald and wife Darla Reno, and Karen Reno, all of Lamar; 11 step-grandchildren; five step-great grandchildren; two aunts, one nephew and three nieces. He was preceded in death by a step-son, Tim Woods.
