

Larry Dean Stewart, age 61, of rural Lamar, Missouri, passed away Thursday, July 6, 2006 at Freeman Hospital West in Joplin.

Larry was born September 23, 1944 in Steamboat Springs, Colorado, to Edward & Helen (Viele) Stewart. He grew up in Franktown, Colorado and graduated from Castle Rock High School. In 1965, he entered the United States Army and was stationed in Korea. After serving his country, Larry returned to Colorado where he was a rancher and outfitter/guide in Montrose. Larry moved to Barton County in 1978 and married Patricia Sue Keller May 18, 1979. They have lived east of Lamar, raising beef cattle and other livestock for 28 years.

Survivors include his wife, Patricia, of the home; two daughters, Robin L. Brown, Freeport, Texas, Bobbie R. Powell, Salida, Colorado; a step-son, Mike Anderson, Lamar; a step-daughter, Lisa Thayer, Lamar; a brother, Frank Stewart, Lamar; a sister, Gail Plante, Hot Springs, Arkansas; six grandchildren, Trulane Thompson, Preston Powell, Sheree Powell, Michelle Marshall, Brandon Marshall and Shawn Marshall. His parents and two sisters, Shirley Steffan and Stella Stewart preceded him in death.

IN MEMORY OF
LARRY DEAN STEWART

September 23, 1944      July 6, 2006

FUNERAL SERVICE

10:00 a.m. Tuesday, July 11, 2006
Daniel Funeral Home

OFFICIATING

Rev. Lonnie Pennell

MINISTRY OF MUSIC

“On The Wings Of An Eagle”
“God Only Cries For The Living”

PALLBEARERS

Jerry Banta   Travis Gire   Matt Joyce
Scott Melton   Ron Simons   Keith Schlabach

HONORARY PALLBEARERS

Bill Curtsinger   Sanford Schlabach   Kendall Gire
David Wengerd   George Livingston   Fred Fortin

AT REST

Missouri Veterans Cemetery
2:00 p.m. Tuesday
Military Honors: National Guard Bravo Team