

Clarence Taylor

Clarence Conway "Connie" Taylor, 78, passed away at 5:15 p.m., Monday, August 21, 2000, at St. John's Regional Medical Center, Joplin, Mo. Connie was born February 17, 1922, in Milford, Mo., to James R. "Jim" Taylor and Bessie Lee Fanning Taylor and had lived in Barton County most of his life. He was a retired machine maintenance worker at O'Sullivan's and Lawn Boy. He was a World War II Army Corporal. He married Madilene Belcher September 21, 1974, in Lamar. She survives.

He is also survived by two sons: Lance Lee Harmon, Forsyth, Mo., and Richard Lee Taylor, Lamar; two daughters, Marilyn Parnell, Lockwood, Mo., and Connie Kaye Taylor; three sisters, Lena LeAnn, Greenfield, Mo., Bea Phillips, Mesa, Ariz., and Jessie Beattie, Riverside, Cal.; one sister-in-law, Juanita Taylor, Broken Arrow, Ok.; and one brother-in-law, Bob Reno, Oakton, Mo.; four grandchildren, Marjorie Hinninger, Tera Schmitt, Brian Parnell, and Shannon Lane. He was preceded in death by one brother, Carl Taylor and one sister, Ruby Reno.

IN MEMORY OF

Clarence Conway "Connie" Taylor

February 17, 1922 August 21, 2000

SERVICES

10:00 A. M., Thursday
August 24, 2000
Memory Gardens

CLERGY

Rev. Harold McMasters

PALLBEARERS

Kenny Taylor Tim Abernathy
Dennis Leir Harold Cornell
Gary Todd Bill Griffitt

AT REST

Memory Gardens