

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Robert Dean Trout, 50, of Citrus Heights, California, passed away March 21st, following a short illness. He leaves a wife, Noel, of the home; two daughters, Heather A. Trout and Heidi Trout-Adams and a granddaughter, Samantha Adams, all of Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Other surviving family members are his parents, Bob & Noraleen Trout, Lamar; a sister, Kathy Benziger & husband, Bob, of Joplin; a brother, Randy & wife, Tracy Trout and their children, Sarah, Daniel, David and Michael, Orangevale, California. He has numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins here and in California.

Rob was born October 4, 1953 on his paternal grandfather's birthday and their 50th wedding anniversary. Lawrence and Alta Trout were always proud of that. Rob lived most of his years in California. He had his own construction business for years before recently becoming the project manager for a large commercial construction company. He loved construction and he loved sports. He was very involved with his daughters and their sports activities
