

Church. Covenant.

Having been, as we trust - brought - by divine grace to embrace the Lord Jesus Christ and to give up ourselves wholly to him; we do now solemnly and faithfully covenant together with each other, to walk together in him with Brotherly Love, to his glory as our common Lord. we do therefore in his strength engage;

That we will exercise a mutual care as members one of another to promote the growth of the whole body in Christian Knowledge, holiness and comfort; to the end that we may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God.

That to promote and secure this object we will uphold the public worship of God and the ordinances of his house; and hold constant communion with each other therein, that we will cheerfully contribute of our property for the support of the poor and for the maintenance of a faithful ministry of the gospel among us.

That we will not omit - closet and family religion at home, nor allow ourselves in the too common neglect of the great duty of religiously training up our children, and those under our care, with a view to the service of Christ, and the enjoyment of heaven.

That we will walk circumspectly in the world, that we may win their souls; remembering that God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind, that we are the light of the world and the salt of the earth, and that a city set on a hill cannot
