Poem

God looked around His garden and saw an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth and saw your face.
He put His arms around you and lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.
He knew you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain,
He knew that you would never get well on earth again.
He saw the road was rough, and the hills were hard to climb
So He closed your weary eyelids, and whispered
"Peace Be Thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone, for part of us went with you
The day God called you home.
