AT REST

Lake Cemetery

Zetta May Combs, age 96, of Lamar, died May 10, 2010, at her home after a short illness.

Zetta was born January 29, 1914 at Mountain Grove, Missouri, and was the only child of John Benjamin and Zetta May (Fleming) Stickney. She graduated from High School in Republic, MO and on May 22, 1938 she graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Education from State Teachers College (SMSU) Springfield, MO. A lifelong student of sewing and cooking, Zetta taught Home Economics at Republic for three years and in 1941, she moved to Lamar and began teaching Home Economics at the Lamar High School, where she taught for 17 years.

On August 6, 1958, she married Clyde Edwin Combs, an attorney in Lamar, and a graduate of the University of Missouri. Mr. Combs preceded her in death October 29, 1965 at the age of 51.

Zetta was a member of the Lamar United Methodist Church where she was active in the choir, women's organizations, and was the church librarian until last year. This year the church named the library the Zetta May Combs Library in honor of her years of service. She was also a member of P.E.O., and GFWC Atheneum Club and Federated Women's Club.

Zetta is survived by second cousin, Mary Jean Brock and husband Phil of Springfield, MO; second cousin Timothy Joseph Tierney of Kansas City, MO; second cousin Mary Joanne Smith of Wichita, KS; third cousins, Sherry Brock Delo and husband Jack of St. Louis, MO Sandra Brock Langewisch and husband Paul of Fulton, MO; Sunday Brock Molen and husband Ron of West Chester OH; Stephen Phil Brock of Springfield, MO; fourth cousins Stacey Brooks Delo Madway and Eleanor Gasper, of Eugene, OR.
