

I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles
when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright & sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories
that I leave behind
When life is done.

APPRECIATION

On behalf of Larry's family, we wish to express their gratitude for your many kindnesses evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at the memorial service.

Larry Joe Cox, age 68, of Lamar, passed away Friday, March 14, 2014 at Freeman West Hospital in Joplin following a short illness.

Larry was born August 12, 1945 in St. Louis, Missouri to Wilburn Edward and Maxine (Copelin) Cox. In 1952, Larry moved with his family from Arkansas to Barton County. After graduating from Lamar High School in 1963 he began a fifty year career in the family sawmill business. Larry quickly mastered his craft while working with his father and became the owner/operator of Cox & Son Lumber in 1980. His customers easily became his friends and Larry will be remembered by many for his hospitality, quick wit, and ready smile. He was a member of Lamar Elks Lodge.

On December 25, 1963, Larry married Marlene Metcalf and she survives of the home. Also surviving are two sons, Kenny Cox of Lamar and Terry (Carol) Cox of Jefferson City, Missouri; a daughter, Julie (Cory) Pitts of Lamar; a sister, Wilburta (Jim) Arrowood of Napoleonville, Louisiana; five grandchildren, Hillary, Kealon, Kyler, Kaleb and Chloe; and a host of wonderful friends and neighbors.
