

HAZEL CUNDIFF

LAMAR — Services will be held at 2 p.m. today (Wednesday) at Lohmeyer-Konantz Chapel for Hazel M. Cundiff, 86, Lamar, who died at 8:46 a.m. Sunday, Feb. 1, at Barton County Memorial Hospital after a brief illness. Rev. Larry Garfield will officiate. Burial will be in Memory Gardens Cemetery, Lamar.

Pallbearers will be Ray Little, Danny Little, Kevin Little, Greg Little, John Kremp, Bill Percy, and Bill McKay.

Memorials may be sent to the Oakton United Methodist Church.

Survivors include her husband, Joe Cundiff; two sons and daughters-in-law, Maurice and Charlotte Cundiff, Lamar, and Marion and Phyllis Cundiff, Joplin; three granddaughters, Melody Cundiff, Michelle Huggins and Melynn Rhea, all of Joplin; two great-grandsons, Christopher Huggins and Hunter Rhea, and one great-granddaughter, Mackenzie Rhea.

Mrs. Cundiff was born July 26, 1911, in Lamar, to Joseph and Edna Leber Kremp. She was a lifelong Barton County resident.

She was a checkout clerk for IGA Grocery for 20 years in Lamar.

She was a member of the Oakton Methodist Church, Lamar.

She married Joe Cundiff on March 10, 1934, in Carthage.