

JACK DIGGS

LAMAR — Services for Jack Morris Diggs, 67, Carlsbad, N.M., a former Lamar resident, who died early Saturday morning at his home after a long illness, will be held Wednesday at West Funeral Home, Carlsbad. Graveside services will be at 11 a.m. Friday at Oakton Cemetery, southwest of Lamar. The Rev. Alvin Hillman will officiate.

The casket will be open at the graveside.

Arrangements are under the direction of Lohmeyer-Konantz Funeral Home.

Memorial contributions may be made to the hospice program, in care of the Lamar funeral home.

Mr. Diggs was born April 19, 1918, in the Oakton community to Mr. and Mrs. Will T. Diggs. He was a retired Lamar area farmer. He moved in 1951 to Carlsbad, where he owned and operated a Dairy Queen for many years.

He was a member of the First United Methodist Church and the Lions Club, both of Carlsbad.

Surviving are two sons, Gary Diggs, Albuquerque, N.M., and Morris Diggs, Carlsbad; two daughters, Cyndy Gaillardet, Pecos, Texas, and Betsy Pitkin, Pinevale, Ariz.; three brothers, William Henry Diggs, Steve Diggs, and George Diggs, all of Lamar; two sisters, Cynthia May Diggs, Lamar, and Ellabeth Stillings, Atchinson, Kans., and four grandchildren.
