

John Cecil Dunaway

John Cecil Dunaway, 94, Lamar, Missouri, passed away Wednesday, March 28, 2007 at his home in Lamar.

John was born June 2, 1912 in Stockton, MO to John and Sarah (Hopkins) Dunaway. He has lived in Lamar since 1940. John worked as a maintenance man for the Missouri Highway Department beginning in 1953 and retiring in 1976.

John married Monta Garton in 1944 in Brownwood, Texas.

Survivors include his wife, Monta, of the home; one son, Steve Dunaway and wife Tina of Lamar; one daughter Debra Dill of Lamar; one sister, Hazel Thomas of Butler, Missouri; three grandchildren, Greg Dunaway, Steven Dill, Keira McMillin; and three great grandchildren, Shelby Lynn, Sammy Jo and Kendra Sue.

He was preceded in death by three brothers, Leroy, Amos and Coy Dunaway.

John was WWII Army Veteran. He attended the First Baptist Church in Lamar, Missouri where he was also a member.

In Memory of

John Cecil Dunaway

June 2, 1912 ~ March 28, 2007

Services

Saturday ~ March 31, 2007 ~ 2:00 p.m.

Konantz-Warden Funeral Home

Officiating

Minister Jack Slade

Music Performed By ~ John Scott

Songs

"Amazing Grace" "Jesus Loves Me"

Pallbearers

Greg Dunaway ~ Steven Dill ~ Danny McMillin
Ron Dunaway ~ Bobby Thomas ~ Brad Dunaway

Interment

Memory Gardens Cemetery, Lamar, Missouri

Arrangements Under Direction Of

Konantz-Warden Funeral Home, Lamar, Missouri