

Wanda Lou Duncan was born to James Authur and Bernice Edwina (Hubbard) Probert on August 7, 1928 in Jasper County, Missouri. She died at 11:43 a.m. on Tuesday, July 31, 2007 at St. John's Regional Medical Center in Joplin, Missouri. Wanda shared 78 years, 11 months and 24 days with us.

Wanda lived her entire life in the Golden City area and graduated from Golden City High School with the class of 1947. She married Orville Duncan in Lamar, Missouri on October 11, 1947.

Wanda worked many years as a clerk in Lowrance's Variety Store. She also worked at the Golden City Day Care Center and cooked for the Lamar Rotary Club. Wanda was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, Golden City. She collected teapots, loved to do crossword puzzles and was an avid fan of "Wheel" of Fortune on television. Wanda also did embroidery and cross stitch. Her pride and joy were her six granddaughters and two great-grandsons.

Wanda was preceded in death by her parents, brothers, Max, Vern, Joe, Gene, Kenneth and Marvin and sisters, Dorothy Kelley, Helen Nichols, Marguerite Weinstein, Pauline Stansberry, Lucille Scott and Bernice Stansberry.

Wanda is survived by her husband, Orville Duncan, Golden City, MO, her two sons Terry Duncan and wife Joyce of Golden City, Keith Duncan and wife Cynthia of Lamar, her daughter Dixie Wolf and husband Gary of Sarcoxie, Missouri, her six granddaughters: Stacie Pittsenbarger and husband Mike, Lindsey Todd and husband Laramie, Ashley Davis and husband Brandon, Haley Wolf, Shelley Wolf and Montana Duncan, her two great grandsons, Logan Pittsenbarger and Braxton Davis, her two sisters, Sarah Combs of Golden City and Betty Pattison of Lamar, her five sisters-in-law: Edna, Mary, Judy, Wanda and Betty Probert and her two brothers-in-law Vaughn Nichols and Ed Weinstein. Numerous nieces and nephews, other family members, friends, and neighbors will fondly remember this loving and caring woman.
