Alma Lou Garner, 77, of Carthage, Missouri passed away Sunday, August 9, 2009 at St. Luke's Nursing Center, Carthage, Missouri. She was born on August 6, 1932 in Springfield, Missouri to Mac and Mabel (Stemmons) Williams.

Alma was a homemaker and had worked for Belk-Simpson in Carthage, Mo. for 24 years where she was selected as employee of the year in 1987. After the store closed in 1988, she worked at Precious Moments for 12 years, where she was selected employee of the year in 1992. She was a member of the former White Oak Presbyterian Church and attended the Avilla United Methodist Church. Alma was united in marriage to George Edward Garner on June 5, 1952 in Springfield, Mo. he preceded her in death on April 29, 2008.

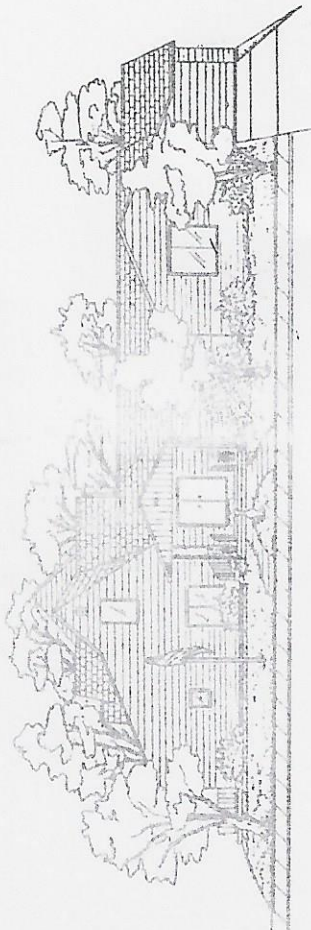

Survivors include, three sons, Danny Garner of Carthage, MO. Dennis Garner of Galena, KS. and Larry Garner of Chaltanooga, TN. One daughter, Jeane Elliott of Webb City, Mo. One sister, Karen Lurvey of Nixa, Mo. Eight grandchildren, and seven great grandchildren.

There is one "Precious Moment"
When from this world we part
To Live forever with the One
Who has lived within our heart.

There is one "Glorious Moment"
When we meet Jesus face to face
A time of everlasting peace
All suffering erased.

There is also one "Saddened Moment"
For those loved ones left behind
But God is good and He blesses us
With many "Precious Moments" to remember in our mind.
