

Treasured Seasons

For everything there is an appointed season.
 And a time for everything
 under heaven -
 A time for sharing;
 a time for caring;
 A time for loving;
 a time for giving;
 A time for remembering;
 a time for parting.
 You have made everything
 beautiful in its time for everything You do remains forever.

CAUTION
 We do not have the right-of-way at STOP SIGNS

LAMAR - Services were held at 10 a.m. Wednesday at Lohmeyer-Konantz Funeral Home for Olive L. Harris, 78, Lamar, who died at 9:10 a.m. Sunday at St. John's Regional Health Center, Springfield, after a short illness.

Burial was in Round Prairie Cemetery, northeast of Lamar.

Survivors include three sons, Cecil Harris and Everett Harris, both of Lamar, and Robert Harris, Covina, Calif.; a daughter, Reta Mae Richardson, Walker; a brother, Orville Hall, the state of Alabama; three sisters, Hazel Swartz and Gladys Vermule, both of Lohrville, and Evelyn Vermule, Council Bluff, Iowa; 10 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Harris was born July 18, 1910, in Lohrville, Iowa, and had lived in the Lamar area for 20 years.

She was a homemaker, and a member of the Methodist church and the Royal Neighbors Club.

Her husband, Jesse E. Harris, preceded her in death on April 10, 1966.
