

EDITH JOSEPHINE HEAD, daughter of George Francis and Mary Jane Neece Burbank was born May 18, 1907 in Brookfield, Missouri. Edith died Thursday morning, June 30, 1994 at her home. Edith was preceded in death by her parents, her brother, Edwin J. Burbank, her daughter, Mary Jane Peters, her grandson, Kevin Schnelle and great grandson, Robbi Peters. She was 87 years, 1 month and 12 days old.

Edith spent her early life in Brookfield, Carthage and Aurora. She also spent several years in St. Louis at the Jewish Hospital in the nursing school.

Edith married Fred Head on August 19, 1928 in Eureka Springs, Arkansas. They lived in McKinley and Dudenville, Missouri before coming to Golden City in 1948. Edith and Fred had four children George, Jane, Shirley and Sherry. Edith was actively involved with all of her children's activities including PTA, Cub Scouts and 4-H. The children could not imagine going to any activity without mom or dad driving them. Edith also belonged to the Eastern Star and Bridge Clubs. She was a member of the United Methodist Church in Golden City and taught Sunday School for many years. After Fred's retirement they spent their winter months in Zapata, Texas. Fred preceded Edith in death on August 27, 1985.

Survivors include her son, George Head and his wife, Janette of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, her daughters, Shirley Schnelle and her husband, Wayne of Lockwood, Missouri and Sherry McKee of Hollister, Missouri and 11 grandchildren, John, Lynn, Brent, Jenny, Kaylyn, Kristi, Eric, Greg, Steve, Mike, Tim and 10 great-grandchildren, Jace, Julie, Roy, Carrie, Claire, Caleb, Kerri, Devin, Dustin, and Cody and 1 great-great grandson, Zeke. One sister Frances Burbank, Chesterfield, Missouri and one sister-in-law, Grace Foster, Irwin, Missouri and one brother-in-law, Bill Head, Marionville, Missouri. Many nieces, nephews, friends and neighbors will cherish the memory of her love.
