

When All is Done

When all is done
and my last word is said,
And ye who loved me
murmur, "He is dead"
Let no one weep,
for fear that I should know.
And sorrow too
that ye should sorrow so.
When all is done,
say not my day is o'er,
And that through night
I seek a dimmer shore;
Say rather that
my morn has just begun,
I greet the dawn
and not a setting sun,
When all is done.
