

Hugh Darrel Henegar, Sr., age 68, passed away Friday, September 10, 2010 at his home in Oskaloosa, Missouri following a short illness.

Hugh was born February 22, 1942, at Ramona, Oklahoma, the son of R.N. and Cecile (Wilmoth) Henegar. At age 11, he gave his life to the Lord and was of the Holiness Faith. They were blessed with 49 1/2 years together, making their home and raising eleven children in Barton County.

Hugh will be remembered as a creative entrepreneur with a zest for adventure. He was a skillful mechanic, working on everything from watches and clocks to diesel trucks and auto engines. A man of many interests, he was a watch-repairman, had owned and operated a trucking company, and raised hogs. He was a small aircraft pilot and made memorable trips to the Oshkosh Air Show with his family. He was a watch enthusiast for many years and was a member of the National Association of Watch & Clock Collectors as well as the Experimental Aircraft Association. Above all, Hugh was devoted to his family and proud of his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.
