

Edward Floyd Hurst, age 60, of Lamar, Missouri passed away Monday, December 11, 2006, at The University of Kansas Hospital in Kansas City, Kansas.

Ed was born December 25, 1945 in Corpus Christi, Texas to Clive E. and Frances (Valle) Hurst. When Ed was 11, the family moved to Dade County, Missouri where he graduated from Lockwood High School in 1965. On December 22, 1969, he married Marilyn Sue Haile in Miami, Oklahoma. The couple then moved to Barton County where they've made their home for more than 36 years.

Ed owned and operated an over the road trucking business for many years. He enjoyed hunting and spending time at the lake. Ed attended the First Christian Church of Lamar.

Survivors include his wife of 36 years, Marilyn; two daughters, Cyndy Hurst of the home, Leslie & husband, Dwayne Crockett, Lamar; his mother, Frances Hurst, Laredo, Texas, three brothers and a sister-in-law, Clive E. Jr. and Amy Hurst, Houston, Texas, Mitchell Hurst, Laredo, and Lionel Hurst, Virginia; a sister and brother-in-law, Lola and Ruben Morales, Laredo. His father, Clive E. Hurst, Sr. preceded him in death.

IN MEMORY OF

Edward F. Hurst

December 25, 1945

December 11, 2006

FUNERAL SERVICE

10:00 a.m. Friday

December 15, 2006

Daniel Funeral Home

OFFICIATING

Mike Gage, Minister

MINISTRY OF MUSIC

“Life’s Rodeo”

“Someone To Look Up To”

Phillip Hurst, Vocalist

PALLBEARERS

Ryan Lock Derrick Lock

Robbie Haile Patrick Barry

Corey Pitts Dustin Moyer Tim Sweeny

AT REST

Maple Grove Cemetery