

Matthew 11:28-30 (NIV)

Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light."

Joyce Ann Willet-Hyche passed away Saturday, January 18, 2014 at her home with her family by her side.

Joyce Ann was born February 22, 1951 to Eugene Herbert Willet and Ruth Alaire (Moore) Willet in Lamar, MO. She graduated Lamar High School class of 1969 and went on to work several jobs in her lifetime but her full time career was being a mom and caring for her family. She was an active member of the Lamar United Methodist Church where she faithfully served the Lord and others. She loved to crochet, dance, be outside, laugh and especially loved bringing smiles to the people around her. She was known for her bubbly spirit and was an inspiration to many.

Joyce Ann is survived by her son, Vince Enyeart and his wife Sue of Lamar; Her daughters, Angela Enyeart of Lamar, and Crystal Owens of St. Louis, MO; Her father, Eugene Willet; Three brothers, Robert Willet and his wife Nancy of Uvalde, TX, Mike Willet and his wife Brenda of Branson, MO, and Brian Willet and his wife Jacquie of Jasper, MO; Two sisters, Jean Harrison of Lamar, MO, Thelma Forkner and Bill Cackley of Lamar; Three grandchildren, Kimberly McDowell and her husband Chris, Taylor Stanton, and Zachary Franklin; And one great grandson, Yuri McDowell. She was preceded in death by her mother, Ruth Alaire.
