

Glenn Eugene Lamberson

Glenn Eugene Lamberson, 52, Iantha, Missouri passed away Saturday, February 19, 2011 at the home of his sister in Lamar.

Glenn was born December 19, 1958 to Claude and Esther (Hall) Lamberson in Barton County, Missouri. He was a graduate of Liberal High School in Liberal, Missouri. He began working at the Iantha Seed Company while still in school and remained working there for over 20 years. He was a member of the Iantha Methodist Church and a member of the Metro Club for over 30 years. Survivors include his sister, Mary Fowler of Lamar, Missouri; two nieces, Shirley Fowler and Mitzi Willey; two great nephews, Andrew and Zachary Fowler. He was preceded in death by his parents, three brothers, Cubby, Robert and Wayne Hall.

Glenn's family and many friends will miss his smile, humor and all the fellowship they shared.

In Memory of

Glenn Eugene Lamberson

December 19, 1958 ~ February 19, 2011

Services

Tuesday ~ February 22, 2011 ~ 2:00 p.m.

Konantz~Warden Funeral Home Chapel

Officiating

Zachary Fowler

Vocalist ~ Chris Hymer Organist ~ Wally Norton

Song Selections

"One Day at a Time" "I'll Fly Away"

"Our God is Greater"

Pallbearers

Andrew Fowler ~ Jack Peacock ~ Red Wilkinson

Doyle Miller ~ Neal Smith ~ George Dighero

Honorary Pallbearers

The Metro Club Members

*Bill Norwood, David Weaver, Tim Braker, Terry Roby, Ron Woods, Charles Winslow, Jackie Counts, Paul Crabtree, Mike Rice, Fred Waldbuesser, George Rawlings, Willie Ison
Eric Moser, Robert Seaton, Bill Willey, Genie Davey*

Interment

Iantha Cemetery, Iantha, Missouri

Arrangements Under Direction of

Konantz~Warden Funeral Home, Lamar, Missouri