

Dec. 1987

OLIVE MARTI

LAMAR - Olive C. Marti, 95, Eureka, Ill., a former Lamar resident, died at 5:15 p.m. Thursday at a Eureka nursing home following an illness.

Mrs. Marti was born to William and Elizabeth (Myer) Cordill on Nov. 2, 1892, at Bern, Kan. She had resided in Eureka 15 years. She was a member of the Apostolic Christian Church at Bern.

She married Louis F. Marti on Jan. 11, 1920, at Lamar. He died Aug. 15, 1953.

Surviving are five sons, Ed Marti, Dean Marti, Don Marti and Roland Marti, all of Lamar, and Charles Marti, Liberal; three daughters, Eunice Martin, Peoria, Ill., Pearl Schrock, Congerville, Ill., and Rosmary Degnan, Bloomington, Ill.; two brothers, Walter Cordill, Lamar, and Bill Cordill, Oakville, Iowa; two sisters, Ella Banwart, Fort Scott, Kan., and Alma Cordill, Evanston, Ill.; 38 grandchildren, 68 great-grandchildren, and 10 great-great-grandchildren.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Monday at the Apostolic Christian Church, southwest of Lamar. Gene Marti and Raymond Banwart, ministers, will officiate.

Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Contributions may be made to the Apostolic Christian Church or a charity of one's choice.

SICKMAN & DUNNING
FUNERAL HOME