

Roy "Brownie" Eugene McCoy was born March 22, 1925 in the Lockwood, Missouri to Herschel Dwight and Edith (Ohler) McCoy. He died 12:25 pm. Sunday, July 30, 2000 at Barton County Memorial Hospital in Lamar, Missouri after a long illness. Brownie was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, Betty and his sister, Ruth Blair and his infant son, Leonard Ray McCoy. He was 75 years, 4 months and 8 days old.

Brownie was born and raised in the Lockwood area. He served for a short time in the armed services. Brownie married Betty Quick on July 10, 1944 in Ft. Scott, Kansas. They had three children, Larry, Roy Jr. and Leonard Ray. In 1955 the family moved to California, but moved back to Lamar area in 1975. When Brownie came back to the Lamar area, he worked for O'Sullivan's in Lamar as a sample maker for 10 years until he retired in the 80's. His hobby and interests were woodworking. Betty preceded him in death on September 16, 1993.

Brownie is survived by his sons, Larry McCoy and his wife, Catherine; Roy McCoy Jr., all of Tulsa, Oklahoma, his three grandchildren, Danny, Larry Jr. and Darla and his three great grandchildren Adam, Shazia and Jasmine. Other relatives, friends, and neighbors will treasure the memories of this caring man.
