

Our loving wife and mother has gone home to be with her Father in Heaven.

Anna Pauline (Howard) Miller, 90, of Golden City, passed away Saturday, December 22, 2001, at Barton County Memorial Hospital following a lengthy illness.

Anna was born September 16, 1911, in the Mt. Carmel community, one of the eleven children of Claude Lorraine and May (Pelley) Howard. On June 6, 1936, in Carthage, Missouri, she married Donald Cass Miller, who survives.

Mrs. Miller was a lifetime Barton County resident and taught in rural schools following her graduation from Golden City High School in 1929. She earned a lifetime teaching certificate from Southwest Missouri State College. She was a member of Mt. Carmel Methodist Church until it closed. She then transferred to Golden City United Methodist Church where she served as a Conference Officer in the W.S.C.S. program. She used her gift of teaching through Sunday School Classes, public schools, as well as her own children and grandchildren. She was a Charter Member of the Morris Grove Extension Club and a 4-H Leader for 25 years.

Survivors include her husband of 65 years, Donald Miller; a son and daughter-in-law, Donnie Joe and Judy Miller of Carthage; a daughter and son-in-law, Barbara and Bill Phipps of Lamar; a brother and sister-in-law, Paul and Fay Howard of Hollister, Missouri; a sister and brother-in-law, Betty and Willard Wilson of Carthage; five grandchildren, J.D. Miller, Jodie and wife Brandy Miller, Belinda and husband Dayne Shoff, Brock and wife Kelly Phipps, Bert and wife Shawna Phipps; nine great-grandchildren, Kalaya, Tucker, Sausha, Zebediah, Noah, Ciara, Carlee, Tanner, and Bryson. She was preceded in death by three brothers, Ellis Howard, Claude Howard and Thomas "Speedy" Howard; and five sisters, Lorene Holt, Lillie Osborn, Marie Kinser, Leta Burgi and Ruth Beer.
