

Donald Cass Miller, 89, of Golden City, died at 8:35 a.m. Sunday, July 14, 2002, at the Good Shepherd Nursing Home, Lockwood, after a lengthy illness.

Donald was born Sept. 2, 1912, west of Milford in Barton County, to Lewis Francis and Grace Veronica (Cass) Miller. He graduated from Golden City High School in 1930. On June 6, 1936, at Carthage, he married Anna Pauline Howard, who preceded him in death Dec. 22, 2001.

Mr. Miller was a lifelong resident of Barton County and a farmer. He was a member of Golden City United Methodist Church where he served as teacher, Sunday School Superintendent and district certified lay-leader for many years. He was a 4-H leader for 25 years and served on the Barton County Extension Council, the FHA Board, the Soil Conservation Board, the Golden City School Board during the consolidation of the schools, and numerous other boards.

Survivors include a son and daughter-in-law, Donnie Joe and Judy Miller, Carthage; a daughter and son-in-law, Barbara and Bill Phipps, Lamar; five grandchildren, J.D. Miller, Jodie and wife Brandy Miller, Belinda and husband Dayne Shoff, Brock and wife Kelly Phipps, and Bert and wife Shawna Phipps; 10 great-grandchildren, Kalaya, Tucker, Sausha, Zebediah, Noah, Ciara, Carlee and Tanner, Bryson and Karson.

IN MEMORY OF

Donald Cass Miller

September 2, 1912 July 14, 2002

FUNERAL SERVICE

10 A.M. Wednesday, July 17, 2002
Daniel Funeral Home

OFFICIATING

Rev. Jane Crooks
Rev. Robert Hodson

CONGREGATIONAL HYMNS

"Standing On The Promises"
"The Old Rugged Cross" "Love Lifted Me"
"How Great Thou Art" "Victory In Jesus"
Kevin Stewart, Song Leader
Shirley Townley, Organist

PALLBEARERS

J.D. Miller Jodie Miller
Brock Phipps Bert Phipps Dayne Shoff

AT REST

Lake Cemetery