

I AM the Resurrection, and the Life, saith the Lord; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live, and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.

NOT only do we believe in God, and a future life of peace, happiness and beauty surpassing human conception, but we also feel that in remembering these worthy ones we are able to attain new heights and to challenge posterity to even greater accomplishments.

LET us remember, therefore, that while we gather to pay our parting tribute and to bring solace and comfort to the sorrowing, we have also come to consecrate ourselves anew to the great unfinished task of creating a better world.

HERE in the sanctity of love and memory let us seek to sustain the relatives and close friends by the evidencing of faith and hope; to draw a little closer in friendship and understanding; to inspire the bereaved with greater courage for the days ahead; and to paint a memory picture that shall ever remain a source of comfort and strength.
