

Orvel Edwin Morey, age 80, of Lamar, passed away at 10:45 a.m. Sunday, May 23, 2004, at Truman Healthcare, Lamar.

Orvel was born January 14, 1924 to Floyd Edwin and Edna (Mead) Morey. On February 27, 1947 in Girard, Kansas he married his wife of 57 years Betty Jean Thomas who survives of the home.

Orvel was a farmer and raised cattle. He worked for the ASC in Barton County for several years in the field and the last nine years in their office. He was in the Army during WWII, serving in Japan and the Philippines and was discharged in October of 1946. In 1948 both Orvel and his wife Betty were baptized together and joined Bethlehem Baptist Church. He was a member of the VFW in Golden City and was a good neighbor and friend. Because of failing health Orvel had live the past six years at Truman Healthcare in Lamar.

Survivors include two brothers, Don Morey, Lamar, and Roy Morey, Raytown, Missouri; one sister, Nadine Medlin, Lamar; several nieces and nephews and a host of friends.
