

CLAYTE ONSTOTT 1996

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Monday at Daniel Funeral Home for Clayte Cecalia Onstott, 88, Lamar, who died at 8 a.m. Friday, at McCune Brooks Hospital, Carthage, after a short illness. Rev. John Dille will officiate. Burial will be at Killey Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Lon Tidball, Lee Storm, Paul Hodson, Jerry Gordon, Bob Gordon, and Loyd Clements. Honorary pallbearers will be Claude Miller, Jerry Yount, Richard Alexander, and David Crockett.

Visitation will be held from 7 to 8 p.m. Sunday, at the Funeral Home.

Survivors include one son, Max Prine, Lamar; one daughter, Ellene Stephens, Jasper; two brothers, Rolland Onstott and Russell Onstott, both of Lamar, and one sister, Lila Moore, Lamar; 11 grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren.

Mr. Onstott was born March 3, 1908, at Rolls County to Jess Cecalia and Mae Adelaide Trout Onstott. He lived in Barton County all his life. He was a farmer, and a Baptist.

He married Lula Rose Prine Dec. 4, 1933, in Greenfield. She died Jan. 11, 1965.

CLAYTE ONSTOTT 1996

LAMAR - Services were held at 2 p.m. Monday, Sept. 16, at Daniel Funeral Home, Lamar, for Clayte Cecalia Onstott, 88, Lamar, who died September 13. The Rev. John Dille officiated.

Sharon Crockett and Ronnie Wells Jr. sang "Mansion Over the Hilltop" and "The Old Rugged Cross", accompanied on the organ by Joy Rakestraw.

Honorary pallbearers were Claude Miller, Jerry Yount, Richard Alexander and David Crockett.

Active pallbearers were Lon Tidball, Lee Storm, Paul Hodson, Jerry Gordon, Bob Gordon, and Loyd Clements.

Burial was in Killey Cemetery.

Remembrance

