

Dan Lewis Orahood, age 62, of Lamar, passed away at 2:18 p.m. Wednesday, October 04, 2006, at Truman Healthcare Center.

Dan was born September 7, 1944, at Lamar, the youngest of the eight children of William J. and Lora (Lewis) Orahood. He served in the Army National Guard from 1963 through 1971. On July 16, 1965, at Garden City, Kansas, he married Janice Cornwell. Dan had worked at O'Sullivan Industries for 29 years and had been a supervisor at Thorco for the past eight years. He was a member of Cornerstone Southern Baptist Church of Lamar. Dan was an avid hunter and fisherman and also enjoyed golf and gardening.

Survivors include his wife of 41 years, Janice Orahood, of the home; two sons, John G. Orahood and Kevin D. Orahood, a granddaughter, Tamila McMurray; two brothers and a sister-in-law, Elbert Orahood and John A. & Mary Orahood, all of Lamar; two sisters, Luella Hennings of Wichita, Kansas and Reba Pyle of Huntsville, Alabama. He was preceded in death by a brother Vern Orahood in 1964; and two sisters, Valda Ross in 1985 and Willie Brummett in 1991.
