

ERNEST WOODROW OWEN

Ernest Owen, 85, passed away at 1:17 p.m., Thursday, November 15, 2001, at Barton County Memorial Hospital, Lamar, Missouri, after a lengthy illness. Ernest was born August 11, 1916, in Irwin, Missouri, to Clarence Elmer and Ora Frances (Raper) Owen and lived all his life in Barton County. He was a farmer and was a member of Irwin Community Church for 71 years. He married Thelma Viola Giger on November 29, 1936 in Irwin, Missouri. She survives.

Also surviving are two sons, Wayne Owen and wife Willa, and Roy Owen and wife Linda, all of Lamar, Missouri; two daughters, Carolyn Fowler and husband Gary, Sheldon, Missouri, and Majorie Crabtree and husband Sam, Liberal, Missouri; twelve grandchildren, eleven great grandchildren and four great-great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by three brothers, Harold, Elmer and Glen, one son, Leslie Howard Owen, and one great-great grandson, Justin Wayne Archer.

IN MEMORY OF

Ernest Woodrow Owen

August 11, 1916

November 15, 2001

FUNERAL SERVICE

2:00 P. M., Sunday
November 18, 2001
Daniel Funeral Home

CLERGY

Darren Young, Minister

MINISTRY OF MUSIC

Prelude - taped by Christy Fowler

"I Want to Stroll Over Heaven With You"

"Victory in Jesus" "Till the Storm Passes By"

Sung By Grandchildren: Diana Owen Dana Hinkle
Amy Sallee Rebecca Baldwin Paul Crabtree
Pam Medlin, Organist

PALLBEARERS - GRANDSONS

Nathan Crabtree Paul Crabtree Brian Hinkle
Jamie Archer Micah Baldwin Donnie Kleeman

AT REST

Sheldon Cemetery