Marcia Yvonne (King) Pennell was born January 18th, 1955 to Robbie and Wilford King in Ypsilanti, Michigan. The family moved to Lamar, Missouri in 1969 where Marcia attended high school, graduating in 1973. Marcia departed this life on Wednesday July 29, 2020 from complications of diabetes. Marcia's adventurous nature took her to work and live in several states. Marcia was united in marriage to Bill Pennell in 1998 in Greenfield, Missouri. They later moved to Iantha, Missouri where Marcia was active in the Baptist Church, participating in Mission trips to Haiti and Romania. Since moving into Lamar, she affiliated with the Lamar Nazarene Church. Diabetes presented Marcia with challenges she met with courage, determination, and a positive attitude. Due to her failing health she most recently resided at Truman Healthcare in Lamar. Marcia is survived by her husband Bill Pennell of Iantha, MO; daughter Jessica (James) Purdy Cunningham of Clever, MO; her mother Robbie King of Lamar, MO; sisters Sue (Steve) Bruce of Raytown, MO, and Patricia (Dan) Preston of Branson, MO; and a brother Bill (Lisa) King of Little Rock, AR.
