Kathryn E. Perkins, age 79, passed away Wednesday, December 3, 2003 at Holiday Island, Arkansas.

Kathryn was born May 10, 1924, in Lamar, Missouri to Alfred and Myrtle Thomas. She attended High School in Golden City, Missouri and taught school for a few years before she became an Auditor for the state of Missouri for many years. She married Agustus Edmonds who preceded her in death. After retirement she married William Perkins and they made their home in Holliday Island, Arkansas.

Survivors include her husband, William; a son, Thomas Edmonds, Kansas City; four daughters Elizabeth Officer, Texas, Susan McIlon, Mexico, Janice Cox, Las Vegas, Nevada, Laura Wilson, Kansas; two sisters, Doris Hackler and Betty Morey, both of Lamar; and several grandchildren. Two brothers, Bobby and Carl, preceded her in death.

APPRECIATION

In behalf of the family, we wish to express their gratitude for your many kindnesses evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at the memorial service.

PROCESSION LAW

A new law gives funeral processions legal right of way. If you are driving in the procession turn on your flashing emergency lights and follow the car in front as closely as practical and safe. Turn OFF your lights at the cemetery.
