

Judy M. (Marilyn Jewell Morton) Probert was born June 27, 1929 to Dr. John "Doc" Lacy and Aileen Mae (Jewell) Morton. She passed away Monday, August 12, 2013 at 10:05 p.m. at the Medicalodges Neosho in Neosho, Missouri. She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband Kenney in 2005 and her sister Jeanne Triplett. Judy shared 84 years, 1 month and 15 days with us.

She was a lifelong resident of Golden City, Missouri. Judy married Kenneth Warren Probert on March 14, 1948 in Weslaco, Texas. She was a member of the Golden City United Methodist Church, Lions Club, Culture Club and the United Methodist Women. Judy founded the Golden Girls, a twirling group of girls age Kindergarten through High School.

She enjoyed quilting and interviewing people for her job with the "Lamar Democrat." Judy contributed the "Cook of the Month" column which allowed her to interview the cooks in their homes and then present their recipes throughout the month. She also had the "Golden Nuggets" column and the Devotional thoughts for the newspaper. She reported for the newspaper for many years.

Judy is survived by five children: Lacy Heslep and husband Joe of Marietta, Georgia, Becky Briggs and her husband Alan of Neosho, MO, Julie Embrey and her husband Jim of Tulsa, OK. Buddy Probert and his late wife Judy Jordan of Lamar, MO and David Probert and wife Nikki of Belton, MO, ten grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Other family members, friends and neighbors will fondly remember this caring and loving woman.
