Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want...

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters...

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake...

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over...

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

LUELLA REX

Iantha, Mo.- Luella (Duckett) Rex, 100, died at 6:20 p.m. Friday, Jan. 31, 1997. She was born Sept. 22, 1896, at Cassville. A longtime Barton County resident, Mrs. Rex had moved to Kansas City a short time ago to be near family.

Mrs. Rex worked several years as a pastry cook at the Blue Top Restaurant and was well-known for her delicious pies. She was a homemaker, an avid gardener, and a member of the Iantha Baptist Church.

She is survived by a son, James W. Rex, Raytown; a daughter, Eugenia Baldwin, Kansas City, and a granddaughter raised as a daughter, Judy Bigelow. Of the thirteen children in her family, her older brother, Arnel Duckett, Prineville, Ore., two sisters, Lela Lupenacci, Clarkston, Wash., and Lena Marshall, LaGrande, Ore., survive. Also surviving are four additional grandchildren, Sandy McCombs, Pamela Rex, Patricia Thum and Sharon Martin; nine great-grandchildren, Connie, Craig, Chris, Cliff, Angela, Jennifer, William, Brandon, and Shondra; and two great-great-grandchildren, Holly and Matthew.

Mrs. Rex enjoyed an extended family in Iantha, with Clara Belle and Jess Searles and their family becoming much more than just neighbors in the many years they lived next door to each other.

Two sons preceded Mrs. Rex in death, Lloyd, in 1974, and Ernest, in 1993.

Mrs. Rex has been a wonderful friend and an inspiration to many, and leaves us with beautiful memories.
