

Dorothy J. Richards

Dorothy Richards, 73, of Lamar, Missouri, went to be with the Lord about 6:15 a.m. Sunday, February 13th, 2005, after a lengthy illness.

Dorothy was the daughter of Walter and Minnie Miller born on December the 4th 1931, in Liberal, MO, and was a life long resident of the area. She was an elementary school teacher's aid until she retired. She had been a member of the Iantha United Methodist Church for more than 45 years and the church treasurer for 30.

She married Dale Richards on January 9, 1950 in Columbus, Kansas. He preceded her in death on March 6, 1989.

She is survived by a son, James Richards of Lamar, two daughters, Cheryl Stump of Carthage and Nancy Volkman of Lamar, 6 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild. Also surviving are four brothers, Larry Miller of Liberal, Jack Miller of Douglas, KS, Bob Miller of Wichita, KS and Chuck Miller of Sheldon, MO; and one sister, Ona Mae Winship of Liberal.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her parents Walter and Minnie Miller, her husband Dale and two grand daughters, Rebecca Stump and Jennifer Brown

Dorothy's Prayer;

"Lord, I pray that whatever my family and friends remember of me ~ my temper, my tears, my mistakes ~ please let them remember the laughter and deep love I had for each of them. Amen"
