

Flossie Wanetta Robinson

Flossie Wanetta Robinson 94, Lamar, Missouri, passed away on Monday, August 3, 2009 at her home near Milford, Missouri.

Wanetta was born November 18, 1914 on the family farm east of Milford to Denzil Dale and Rosa Mae (Long) Stone. She was a graduate of Lamar High School.

She married Delbert Lee "Dutch" Robinson on October 21, 1933 in Lamar, Missouri. He preceded her in death on May 25, 2000.

Survivors include several cousins, especially, Connie Kennemer and husband, Gary, of Springfield, MO; several nieces & nephews, Lee Hagins, Larry Hagins, Lonnie Hagins, Eugene Hagins, Linda Hagins, Darrell Robinson, Earl Robinson and Della Mitchell and several great nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents and husband, "Dutch".

Wanetta was a homemaker. She loved to work and be involved in the community activities. She served as secretary of the election board and had worked at several of the elections. She was a member of the Harmony Baptist Church.

In Memory of

Flossie Wanetta Robinson

November 18, 1914 ~ August 3, 2009

Services

*Thursday ~ August 6, 2009 ~ 2:30 p.m.
Konantz~Warden Funeral Home, Lamar, Missouri*

Officiating Ministers

George Haag ~ Lonnie Pennell

Singers ~ Susie Gardner Graham & Ashley Graham Organist ~ Janice Rice

Song Selections

"In The Garden" & "The Old Rugged Cross"

Pallbearers

*Lee Hagins ~ Larry Hagins ~ Lonnie Hagins ~ Eugene Hagins
Mark Kennemer ~ Tim Kennemer ~ Danny Schreiweis*

Interment

St James Cemetery, Barton County, Missouri

Arrangements Under Direction of Konantz~Warden Funeral Home, Lamar, Missouri