

Brent Alan Rush, age 39, of rural Lamar, passed away Saturday, April 24, 2010 at Mercy St. John's Hospital in Cassville.

Brent was born August 17, 1970 at Carthage, Missouri, to Charles "Butch" and Vickie (Gastel) Rush. He graduated from Lamar High School in 1988, earned an associate's degree from NEO, and attended Oklahoma State University. In addition to being a cattleman and farmer, Brent had worked for Murphy Farms for the past nine years. He was an avid outdoorsman who enjoyed hunting, fishing, golf, and following Oklahoma State Cowboys football. He was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Lamar Metro Club, and Lamar Masonic Lodge.

Survivors include his daughter, Whitney Rush, Pittsburg, Kansas; his father, Charles "Butch" Rush, Lamar; a brother and sister-in-law, Randy & Heidi Rush, Waterloo, Iowa; a sister and brother-in-law, Kenda & Rod Haun, Lamar; nephew and niece, Cooper & Elly Haun; a large extended family; and a host of friends. Brent was preceded in death by his mother, Vickie, in 1999.

IN MEMORY OF
Brent Alan Rush
August 17, 1970 ~ April 24, 2010

GRAVESIDE SERVICE
10:00 am Wednesday April 28, 2010
St. Mary's Cemetery

OFFICIATING
Pastor Jarel Burnside

PALLBEARERS
Dennis Stockstill ~ Dave Palmer
Kevin Duncan ~ Tim Phipps
Lance Hardman ~ Kenny Morris
Will James

AT REST
St. Mary's Cemetery
Lamar, Missouri

APPRECIATION

On behalf of Brent's family, we wish to express their gratitude for your many kindnesses evidenced in thought and deed, and for your attendance at the funeral service.

