

MARION WHITE

1997

LAMAR - Services will be at 2 p.m. today (Wednesday), March 12, at Beeny-Ferry Funeral Home, Sheldon, for Marion Ogden White, 83, Lamar, who died Saturday at Nevada Regional Medical Center after a long illness. The Rev. Clifton Bryant will officiate.

Burial will be in Oakton Cemetery, Oakton.

Friends may call until the hour of the funeral at the Beeny-Ferry Funeral Home at Sheldon.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Shriners Crippled Children's Fund.

Survivors include his wife, Ethel White, of the home; a son, Charles White, Parsons, Kan.; a stepson, Clifton Bryant, Webb City; six grandchildren; a great-grandchild; and a brother, Richard White, Twin Falls, Idaho.

Mr. White was born Feb. 22, 1914, at Lamar to Charley Franklin and Nann (Crockett) White. He attended school at Lamar before moving to Idaho in 1928, where he worked as a farm hand growing potatoes and sugar beets.

He entered the Army in 1943 serving in Europe in the Battle of the Bulge. Upon being discharged from the Army in 1945, he returned to Twin Falls, Idaho, soon moving back to Lamar and went to work for Heims Hatchery for 21 years. He then worked for O'Sullivan Industries in Lamar, where he worked for 18 years, retiring at the age of 75. He was a member of the First Church of Nazarene in Carthage.

He married Ethel Giger Bryant on June 16, 1952, at Bentonville, Ark.
