

Frankie May Woody, age 90, of Lamar, passed away Friday, August 13, 2010 at Barton County Memorial Hospital.

Frankie was born July 11, 1920, at Milo, Missouri, to Frank and May (Slates) Carter. On December 30, 1936, at Nevada, Missouri, she married Lue Hobert Woody and they had celebrated 32 years together before his death on February 24, 1969. She was also preceded in death by her parents and two sisters, Mary Schuholm and June Rhine.

Frankie and Hobert owned and operated the Montevallo Grocery Store for 15 years before moving to Lamar in 1960. Frankie also worked as a seamstress at Nelly-Don Junior House from 1958 until retiring in 1982. With a great work ethic, positive attitude and out-going personality, Frankie contributed much to her community and enjoyed life regardless of circumstance. She was a wonderful homemaker who showed generous hospitality to friends, family, and even the stray animals fortunate enough to find their way to her doorstep. She volunteered at Good Samaritan and will be remembered by many for her warm smile and kind touch.

Survivors include a son and daughter-in-law, Jim & Dorthy Woody of Spring, Texas; a daughter, Lue Straub of Overland Park, Kansas; her twin sister, Francis Wood of Springfield; her dear friend and "pseudo-sister" Jo Mixon of Lamar; four grandchildren, James Woody II, Regina Crain, Sterling Straub, and Ingrid Chun; eight great-grandchildren, Matthew, Nicholas, Coy, Reanna, Leilani, Annika, Isa, and Ella; and a great-great-granddaughter, Mabry.
