

Treasured Seasons

For everything there is an appointed season.
 And a time for everything
 under heaven -
 A time for sharing,
 a time for caring.
 A time for loving,
 a time for giving.
 A time for remembering,
 a time for parting.
 You have made everything
 beautiful in its time
 For everything You do remains forever.

Cotton Workman

Jewell B. "Cotton" Workman, 79, died near his rural Lamar home at approximately 9:00 p.m. Monday, December 22, 1997, of a sudden illness.

Cotton was born December 11, 1918, at Kaiser, Missouri, to William and Chloe (Cornett) "Mommie & Poppy" Workman. He was a longtime Barton County resident, moving from Camden County.

He married Helen Jean Faubion Aug. 27, 1938, in Lamar. Cotton and Helen Jean owned and operated Workman Grocery in Lantha for many years. In addition to being a farmer, Cotton had also worked for Lawn Boy for a few years and worked for Howard Construction Company during the construction of Highways 71 and 43 through the area.

Helen Jean preceded Cotton in death June 17, 1997. He was also preceded in death by his father in 1954; his mother in 1978; three brothers, Don, Leonard and Clifford; three sisters, Waneta Workman, Eunice Lavaugh, and Elsie Clark; and two grandchildren.

Survivors include two sons, Jack Workman, Nevada, and Jerry Wayne Workman, Liberal; four daughters, Jill Butler, Liberal, Jean Overstreet, Liberal, Judy Marti, Lamar, and Jolene Selvey, Liberal; two brothers, Wayne Workman, Liberal, and Ernest Workman, Lamar; three sisters, Ellen Ambler, Golden City, Pauline Smith, Palm Desert, Calif., and Nadine Ireland, Kansas City; seventeen grandchildren; and ten great grandchildren.
